CONGRESS.

An Abstract of the More Important Proceedings of Both Houses.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 18. In the Senate, a number of pension bills were taken from the calendar and passed, including bills increasing the pensions of the widows of Gen. Custer, Admiral Wilkes and Gen. Daniel

Uliman to $100 a month. The first was a House hill, all the others are Senate hills. When the bill to give $100 a month to Mrs. Coster was read, Mr. Plumb (Kan.) inquired if | printed Mr. Davis (Minn.), Chairman of the Committee on Pensions, had considered the question of increasing the pensions of the widows of pri-

Mr. Davis informed him that when he (Mr. Plumb) introduced a bill to that effect it would

Mr. Plumb. I wish to know what the committee has done on that subject. Mr. Davis. The committee has not had any occasion to express an opinion upon it. Mr. Piumb, Then, I am bound to suppose yet come within the purview of that commit-The copyright bill was then considered in Committee of the Whole. The bill was discussed at length, and a great many amendments adopted. The committee rose, and the without transacting any business. The jourbill, as amended, was passed by a vote of 36 A committee was asked for on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill, and

Messrs. Platt, Hiscock and Gray were appointed conferrees on the part of the Senate. The bill for the erection of a new custom house in the city of New York was, on motion of Mr. Everts (N. Y.), taken from the calendar

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the substitute for the payment and ad-Judication of claims acising from Indian depredations. Without reaching a conclusion, the Benate took a recess at 6 p. m.

A quorum of Senators did not appear at the evening session, and the Senate adjourned at | The proposition for printing 100,000 copies of In the House, the Speaker being unwell, Mr. Payson (III.) was elected Speaker pro tem.

A conference was ordered on the District of Columbia appropriation bill and on the Military Academy appropriation bill, The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill, and after short debate the bill was passed, The House then went into Committee of the bill consumed the day's session, The House adjourned at 5:30 p. m.

THURSDAY, FEB. 19. In the Senate, a bill to increase the pension of Gen. W. H. Powell to $72 per month was reported from the Committee on Pensions and

Mr. Jugalls (Kan.) made a personal statechosen President of the Senate pro tempore. Vice examination for such employes. in that station until April 2 last, when, under a resolution of March 12 preceding, he was unanimously designated to preside during future absences of the Vice-President, and at the pleasure of the Senate-a function not previously exercised by any member of the body during the century of its existence,

The Senate having been formally notified that his services here will end with the close of this Congress, in order to avoid embarrassment and to afford opportunity for deliberation, be tendered his resignation as President of the Senate pro tempore, to take effect on the election of his successor in office. The bill for the adjudication of claims arising from Indian depredations was then taken up as unfinished business, discussed at length, several amendments adopted, and passed, and from the bill. a conference asked for on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses. Mosers, Moody, Faulkuer

the part of the Senate. Mr. McPherson (N. J.) introduced a bill, which was referred to the Committee on Penwidow of Admiral Porter. The Senate adjourned at 6 p. m.

In the House, Scoute bill for the relief of settlers on certain lands in the southern portion of lows, was taken up and passed. Mr. Thomas (III.) called up from the Speaker's table a bill referring to the Court of Claims the claim of the Portland (Me.) Company growing out of the construction of the double-ended steamers Agawan and Pontunsic. Mr. Springer (Ill.) moved its reference to the Committee on War Claims, and, after an argument by Mr. Thomas in support of the measure, Mr. Springer claimed the floor. The Speaker decided that Mr. Springer was not entitled to the floor, and obstructive tactics were indulged in which consumed a great deal The House then went into Committee of the

Without disposing of the bill the House adjourned until 8 p. m. this evening.

For the first time in the history of the House during the same calendar day. Acting in accordance with a resolution adopted two days ago, the House met at 8 p'clock this evening The Chaplain was not present, but the proceedings were preceded by the reading of the jour- under act June 27, 1890, 563,497. and and its approval. This action is, however, considered by parliamentary authorities to be be raiged as to its legality.

The immigration bill was then considered, but without making much progress the House adjourned at 10:15 p. m.

FRIDAY, FEB. 20.

In the Senate, after the transaction of routine | pending 1,166,726. morning business, Mr. Davis (Minn.) moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of pension bills unolgected to. There were 120 of mont, mix of whose sons had served in the month 61,708; net gain for month 1,352. Union army in the war of the rebellion. All tion of the Nicaragua canal bill, giving the atives $11,083.20; total, $298,540.72. War of guarantee of the United States Government to 1812, widows $324. War with Mexico, invalids the company's 4-per cent, bonds to the amount $807,47, widows $96; total Mexican $903.47, munds (Vt.) said that in the necessary absence latives $1,008.40; total act of June 27, 1890. of the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign | 38,536.85; salary and expenses $2,451.12; total Relations (Mr. Sherman) it was his duty to disbursements $349,806.16. take charge of the bill for the time being. The subject was not a new one. The National importance of having the kind of interest in the had been fully discussed in the Secate two or | voted to build a hospital in connection with out action upon the bill, the Senate, after a structure by a corridor. The present facilities Grand Army of the Republic, of St. Louis, short executive session, adjourned at 6 p. m. are entirely inadequate, and the new hospital which journal should be read. Springer (III.) remarked that this proceeding building will be started as soon as practicable | tween the depot and the cemetery were packed was in line with the unprocedented character | next Spring. of this sesion,

The Speaker. The language of the gentleman from Illinois during most of this session has been of the same unprecedented character. | appointed committee of Long Island Post, 181,

Rules, reported a resolution for the immediate | drouth, which destroyed the crops to such an | seemed as though the entire population of St. consideration of business reported by the Com- extent as to deprive many of the means of Louis were on the streets along the route to the mittee on the Judiciary, the first bill to be support. Seed wheat, corn, oats, rye, cane seed cometery. Minute guns were fired by batteries, taken up to be the bill for the relief of the Su- and potatoes for planting next spring must be and church bells were tolied as the procession preme Court, with Senate amendments, and had to prepare for another year's crop. Clothing moved, while innumerable bands played the next the bill to fix the salaries of United and non-perishable food will also do much dead march.

Mr. Bre kinridge (Ky.) raised the question door." of consideration. The House decided-year 113, nays 79-to.

pousider the resolution. Mr. Blount (Ga.) moved to table the resolution. Lost-yeas 93, navs 128. Mr. Cannon then took the floor, stating that he would say but a few words as to the merit of the proposition. Mr. McMillan (Tenn.) asked if it was the intention to cut off debate; to which Mr. Cannon. suplied that debate would be limited, but would allow Mr. McMillan three minutes to get the blie off his stomach,

The Democrats then resorted to obstructive tactics, leaving the chamber several times when the roll was being called, thus breaking a quorum. The Speaker, however, counted a quorum each time from Members he knew to be in the building, and the resolution was

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill fixing the salaries of United States District Judges. Without reaching a conclusion, the House took a recess at 6 p. m. The evening session was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills, 113 of which

The House adjourned at 10:30 p. m. SATURDAY, FEB. 2L.

In the Senate, the sundry civil appropriation bill was reported from the Committee on Appropriations, ordered to lie on the table, and be

The joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to issue 1,000 stands of arms to the States of North and South Dakets, Wyoming. Montana and Nebraska was taken up and

The bill to incorporate the Maritime Canal Company of Nicaragua was then considered in Committee of the Whole. The bill occupied the entire day's session. Without reaching a conclusion the Senste adjourned at 5:15 p. m. In the House, while the Clerk was reading the journal of yesterday's proceedings, Mr. that the widows of private soldiers have not | Fithian (Ill.) made the point of order that there was not a quorum present. Upon a count being had but 121 members were found to be present, and a call of the House was ordered. The roll was called 10 different times upon different motions, consuming a great deal of time

nal was finally approved. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Postoffice appropriation bill. After considerable discussion the bill was laid aside, to be reported with a favorable recom-

The deficiency appropriation bill was then taken up and considered in Committee of the Whole. Without reaching a conclusion the committee rose, and the House adjourned at 9

MONDAY, FEB. 28. In the Senate, the credentials of Mr. Platt (Conn.) for his new Senatorial term, beginning March 4 next, were presented and placed on the report of the Agricultural Department on "Diseases of the Horse" provoked a long discussion, many Senators arguing against such extravagance. Mr. Cockrell (Mo.), in replying to a remark regarding public documents being on sale in second-hand bookstores, intimated that that could not be the case without the connivance of Senators and Representatives. An amendment fixing the number of copies of the book at 50,000 was finally adopted. The Whole on the Postoffice appropriation bill. The | Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill. An amondment permitting the Secretary of the Treasury to make temporary appointments of architects, skilled draftsmen and civil engineers in the office of the Supervising Architect was the text of a discussion on the civil service examinations. It came out in the discussion that the purpose of the amendment ment, saying that four years ago he had been was to get rid of the requirement of civil ser-without further discussion.

Without reaching a conclusion on the bill, the Senate adjourned at 11 p. m. In the House, the Democrats made no demand for the reading of the journal in full, and it was approved without objection. The House then went into Committee of the Whole-notwithstanding the antagonism of the members of the Committee on the District of Columbia-on the deficiency appropriation On a point of order raised by Mr. Clements

(Ga.) the clause appropriating $50,000 for the relief of the citizens of Oklahoma was stricken On motion of Mr. Cutcheon (Mich.) an amendment was adopted directing the accountand Paddock were appointed as conferrees on | ing officers of the Treasury not to withhold the pay of any retired officer of the Army retired prior to the act of March 30, 1868, not withstanding his acceptance of a Diplomatic or Consular sions, giving a pension of $2,500 a year to the Position. (This amendment has special reference to Gen. Sickles.) Without disposing of the bill the committee

> The Postoffice appropriation bill was then passed, and the House took a recess, At the evening session the House resumed the consideration of the immigration bill, and Mr. Covert (N. Y.) advocated the bill, and contended that it would prevent immigration of undesirable persons. The consideration of the bill having been completed it was reported to the House. Mr. Oates (Ala.) offered his substitute for the bill, and upon the bill and the substitute the previous question was ordered.

The House adjourned at 10 a. m. Work of the Pension Office.

During the week 8,560 claims were received, of which 266 were original invalid. Whole on the Postoflice apprepriation bill. 211 widows, 2 war of 1812, 4 bounty land, 39 navy, 0 old war, 45 on account of Mexican service, 113 accrued, and 3,080 applications for increase; act of June 27, 1890, 3,800 original that body held two distinct legislative sessions invalid, 1,000 widows, and 0 navy. Number of rejected claims reopened, 224. The names and postoffice addresses of 3,249 comrades were furpished for the use of claimants. There were for the consideration of the immigration bill. 128,545 pieces of small matter received; 99,608 letters and blanks sent out; whole number

Number of cases detailed to Special Examin ers was 867; reports and cases from Special irregular, and it may be that the question will | Examiners, 1,173; cases on hand for special examination, 4.697. Report of certificates issued during the week Original, 3,467; increase, 1,175; reissue, 288; restoration, 75; duplicate, 28; accrued, 71;

Pension Agency Report.

The report of the Ohio Agency of the Pension these passed. Among them was one giving a pen- Department for January shows the largest insion of $50 a month to the widow of Rear-Ad- crease in the number of pensioners enrolled miral Steedman; one increasing the pension of | for any month since the office was established. Brig. Gen. Landram, of Kentucky, to $50; one | The number on the roll at the beginning of the increasing the pension of a widow of a soldier of month was 60,356, number added during the home for many years. The casket was taken the war of 1812, and one giving a pension of month 1,756; total, 62,112; number lost during $12 a month to Mary Morgan Edson, of Ver- the month 404, number on roll at close of

The following are the disbursements for January: Army invalids $210,806.30, widows The Senate then proceeded to the considera- $66,403.42, minors $10,297.80, dependent rel-Act of June 27, 1890, invalids $39,710,37, wid-The bill having been read in full Mr. Ed. ows $7,071.41, minors $46.67, dependent re-

Yermont Soldiers' Home.

The Trustees of the Vermont Soldiers' Home per d the measure, and Mr. Morgan (Ala.) and | The hospital will be provided with 24 beds and 70 and 80 there at present. The plans are to be mander. A brief debate areas, during which Mr. submitted at the enriest possible date, and the

An Appeal for Ald. A circular has been issued by a specially good, and help to keep the "wolf from the Contributions may be sent to the Quartermaster of Long Island Post, 181, Long Island, Phillips County, Kan.

He Ought to Have Known.

[Picel.] Cochran-I suppose your name on this umrelia indicates that it belongs to you? Gilroy-Which, the name or the umbrella?

Cochran-The name, of course. An Education Without Cost for Boys and Girls. Write The American Farmer, 125 Clark | When the last voiley was fired by the infantry, Street, Chicago, Ill. Mention this paper.

Honors Paid the Dead Warrior from the Atlantic to the Mississippi.

Nothing so impressive as the ceremonies attending the funeral of Gen. Sherman on Thursday, Feb. 19, has been seen in New York since the mortal remains of Gen. Grant were buried at Riverside Park. There was less military pomp, and the procession was less imtock, Logan, Belknap, and many other prompent Generals who were at the Grant obsequies

The popular mourning for Gen. Sherman is body was borne to the cars at Jersey City. The transacted. The Exchanges closed at noon, Brief religious services were held at the sisting of the family and intimate friends.

The caisson on which the body was to be carried was ordered to the house at 2 o'clock, authorities as an indication of the refusal of and the honorary pall-bearers formed two lines, | the Government to revise the electoral laws or through which the casket was borne to the to grant universal suffrage .- A majority caisson. The body-bearers were six Sergeants | the executive members of the National League under the command of Lieut, Rodman. The | in Great Britain have decided that speakers at caisson was guarded by Lafayetto Post, of New York, half the Post being on either side of | vocate Mr. McCarthy for the leadership of the the remains. The caisson was the same that I rish party .- Over 300 soldiers and 30 civilcarried the remains of Gens. Grant, Sheridan and Hancock to their last resting-place. Behind the caisson a coal black charger was led | lish a Republic in Spain .- The Servian Minby a private soldier. The horse was shrouded | istry has resigned, owing to internal dissensions in a black pail, and a pair of army boots were reversed in the stirrups.

The pallbearers, in carriages, preceded the caisson. They were Maj.-Gen. J. M. Schofield, Maj.-Gen. O. O. Howard, Rear-Admiral J. A. Greer, Prof. H. L. Kendrick, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, Maj.-Gen. H. W. Slocum, Maj.-Gen. D. E. Sickles, Mai.-Gen. G. M. Dodge, Maj.-Gen. D. M. Corse, Maj.-Gen. Wager Swayne, Maj. Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, Maj. Gen. Horatio G. Wright, Rear-Admiral D. L. Braine and Brig.-Gen. John Moore, U. S. A., all the officers wearing the military uniform of their rank. The caisson was followed by carriages containing the members of the Sherman

Then came the President's carriage, in which he sat with Gen. Horace B. Porter; second carriage, Vice-President Morton and Gen. George D. Ruggles; third, Gen. M. D. Leggett, Acting | ardelli, and a third Brin .-- The Pope has de-Secretary of the Treasury Nettleton, Secretary | clared in favor of the Republic in France. On Proctor and Secretary of the Navy Tracy; two points, he says, no misconception is possible. fourth, Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Sec. | These points are: First, that the Government retary of the Interior Noble, Attorney-General | must be acknowledged; and, secondly, that Miller and Secretary of Agriculture Rusk; the Church must hold aloof from political A long discussion over the clause ensued, and | fifth, Secretary of State Blaine and Assistant was still going on when the hour of 6 p. m. Secretary Grant; seventh, Chauncey M. De- the visit of Empress Frederick to Paris, is said arrived and the Senate took a recess. At the | pew and ex-President Cleveland ; eighth, Jos. evening session the amendment was agreed to H. Choate and ex-President Hayes; ninth, many and Austria, with France as a peaceful Senators Hawley and Manderson and Sergeantat-Arms of the Senate Valentine; tenth, Senators Cockrell, Pierce and Evarts. Then followed carriages containing other notable people and personal friends of the dead General.

After the carriages came the Grand Army of the Republic, under command of Department Commander Clarkson. There were five divisions of the old veterans and Sons of Veterans in line, and they made an imposing appearance. After the Grand Army came the Cadets from the Military Academy at West Point, the old Guard and other military organizations. There were at least 15,000 people in line. Gilmore's band played "Marching Through Georgia," orchestrated into a most touching dirge, The houses along the line of march were and Independents effected a trade by which draped in mourning.

It was 5 o'clock when the remains reached the Jersey shore, and they were at once taken to the special train which was in readiness, and placed upon a catafalque in the funeral car. The train consisted of eight cars, the first one containing the remains, the next containing Gov. Abbett, of New Jersey, and Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, and their staffs, who accompanied the train through their respective States. All the cars, except the one in which | South Dakota in the meaning of the term in the President and Cabinet rode, were heavily

All along the line of the road, G.A.R. Posts turned out and saluted the funeral train as it passed. At Newark, N. J., the bells were last November. The majority of the Repubtolled while the train passed through the licans are Seventh-Day Baptists, Saturday becity. The train did not pass through Philadelphia, but skirted the city. Preparations | Assembly, the majority Democratic, chose Sathad been made to fire a salute, but it was aban- urday for the election. Religious scruples predoned, and about 200 veterans went to the | vented the Baptists from taking part in the

At Pittsburg, the G.A.R. turned out in large numbers, despite the rain, which was falling in torrents. A switchman opened a switch as the train was approaching, and had it not been for the slow rate of speed at which it was going and the watchfulness of the engineer, a terrible accident would have happened. As it was, ing toward Republican policy, although a strong however, no damage was done, and the people on the train knew nothing of the occurrence.

At several towns in Ohio, the public school children were in line at the stations to pay homage to the dead hero. The train stopped 45 minutes at Columbus to change engines, and crowds of people and Grand Army men were around the funeral train. The engine which was booked on at this place was elaborately draped and decorated. Above the headlight was a large crayon portrait of the dead General, and beneath the picture was the inscripact of March 4, 1890, 2. Total, 5,106. Claims tion, "Ohio's son; the Nation's hero."

Crowds of Grand Army men gathered at all the stations along the railroad through Ohio, Indiana and Illinois as the funeral-train passed. It was 8:30 o'clock on Saturday morning that the heavily-draped train entered the Union Depot at St. Louis. Elaborate preparations had been made by the citizens of the city to honor the dead hero, who had called St. Louis his from the funeral-car by the body-bearers and placed on a caisson. Immediately behind the caisson were the honorary pallbearers. They were: Military, Maj.-Gen. John Pope, Brevet Maj.-Gen. Amos Beckwith, Brevet Maj.-Gen. A. J. Smith, Brevet Maj. Gen. John W. Turner, Brevet Maj.-Gen, Willard Warner, Brevet Brig.-Gen, John W. Barriger, Commander Charles S. Cotton, U. S. N. Citizens, Judge Samuel Treat, Col. George E. Leighton, Col. Charles Parsons, Byron Sherman, esq.; Daniel B. Harrison, Isaac

Sturgeon, Thomas E. Tutt and R. P. Tansey. Ranged on either side of the main entrance to the depot were the military and public officials who had accompanied the remains from New York, Gov. Francis and staff, of Missouri, and the Chief Marshal, Gen. Merritt, and staff, Nicaragus canal which the bill provided for at Bennington met recently at Burlington and The six Sergeants who had acted as body-bearers at New York were then relieved by six the Home. As will be remembered, $5,000 was others of the 13th Inf., Sherman's regiment. Mr. Vest (Mo.) and Mr. Davis (Minn.) op- appropriated for it by the last Legislature. The order of march was then given, and to solemn music the immense procession started Mr. Edmunds (Vt.) argued in its favor. With- the building will be connected with the present on its way to Calvary Cemetery. Ransom Post, numbering 400, fell in on either side of the In the House, the exceptional action of hold- will be a very valuable addition to the institu- caisson as an escort of honor to the dead Gening two sessions yesterday on the same calen. tion. The average age of the inmates of the eral. This is the Post to which Gen. Sherman thar day gave rise to some confusion as to Home is over 60 years, and there are belonged, and of which he was the first Com-

The five and one-half miles of sidewalks bewith people on either side, all business having been suspended in the General's honor. It was 10:50 a. m. before the procession was fully under way to the last resting-place of the dead General. It was perhaps the largest and most The journal of last night's proceedings was Department of Kansas, asking for aid for the notable tribute to the memory of an American needy comrades of the Post. During the past citizen, with the exception of that to Gen. Mr. Cannon (III.), from the Committee on season the section was visited by a severe Grant, that this country ever witnessed, for it

> It was 2 o'clock when the head of the procession reached the cemetery. An immense crowd had already gathered in the vicinity of the grave, which had to be driven back by the police to permit the cortege to pass. The ceramonies at the grave were conducted by Rev. adelphia, and bears their "Keeping everlast-Thomas E. Sherman. When the last words of the service were that had been wrapped about the casket was | cile the most fastidious to its company for a removed, and the remains were lowered into | year. the open grave. A space was cleared of the crowd of people, and three volleys were fired by a battalion of Regular troops over the grave.

was heard, as a triple artiflery salute was fired. Then a solitary bugler advanced to the foot of the grave and blew "Taps," and the last honors were paid to the gallant old warrior, who is buried beside his wife, "his soldier son," nine years of age, whose headstone is inscribed: "Our little Sergeant Willie, from the 1st Batallion, 13th U.S. Inf.; in his spirit there was no guile"; and "Baby Charles," who died in 1864, before his first year of life had passed. NEWS OF THE WEEK.

An explosion took place in the Spring Hill Coal mines, Nova Scotia, last Saturday, in which over 100 men were killed, - The posing than on that occasion. Sheridan, Han- | trouble in Chile continues. The insurgents captured Iquique Feb. 17. Iquique is the seaport at which all of the nitrate is shipped, had passed over the river, and were missing and the export duty upon it is the principal source of revenue to the Government. It is argued that if the revolutionists can hold deep and genuine, and could be read in the sad | Iquique they will collect the revenues, and faces which lined the streets through which the | thus become possessed of the sinews of war to the manifest disadvantage of the Government, Courts were closed, and no public business was | which can no longer command funds to pay the necessary troops. -- Osman Digna, the Dervish and generally all business was suspended at | leader, has been again making trouble for the Egyptian Government in the eastern country; but the Egyptian forces, under Gen. Grenfeld. house at noon, and Father Sherman, the dead | last week fought a battle with him at Tokar, General's son, conducted the services, assisted | in which the former were victorious. At least by Father Taylor and two other priests, while | 1,000 men were killed .- The reserve forces a boy choir furnished the music. The services of the Civic Guard of Belgium have been were very simple, consisting of reading of the | called out in the Charleroi District in view of Scriptures, song and prayer. There were about | the threatening state of affairs caused by the 150 persons present at these ceremonies, con- workmen's demand for the passage of a universal suffrage law. The workmen's general committee regard this action upon the part of the branch meetings on St. Patrick's Day shall adians are to be tried by courts-martial charged with connection with the recent plot to estabwhich have been found to be too bitter to enable the Ministery to remain in power.---The relations between young Emperor William and Prince Bismarck are very strained, and the press has been making much capital out of the matter. The Emperor, at a dinner given in his honor by the Brandenburg Diet, said that much that he had recently done had changed many of his people, and that they hesitated to follow him. But he urged that the people support him, declaring that the welfare of the country depended upon this course.—
Dissensions exist in Italy's Parliament. The new ministry is not considered secure, and the opposition is formidable in numbers and talent. If the opposition was compact the existence of the ministry would be of brief duration; but it is weakened by internal divisions, one section desiring Signor Crispi as leader, another Zanto foreshadow a new alliance of Russia, Gerneighbor, or else forced to submit to the dictation of the other powers.

A board of officers has been appointed to meet, at the call of the President thereof, at Fort Keegh, Mont., for the examination of such officers of the Army as may be ordered before it to determine their fitness for pro-

POLITICAL.

The death-knell of prohibition has been sounded in the South Dakota Legislature, the resubmission bill to annul the constitutional prohibition amendment having been carried. The Prohibitionists claim that the Democrats the Democrats gave to the Independents Kyle's election in return for assistance in passing resubmission .- Edwin Stuart, Republican, was chosen Mayor of Philadelphia, defeating Albert H. Ladner, Democrat, by an estimated majority of 40,000 .- It is asserted by prominent attorneys and others that United States Senatorelect Kyle, in addition to being ineligible on account of not receiving a majority vote of the whole Legislature, is not an inhabitant of the Constitution; that he owns no property draped. The President's car was switched off | and pays no taxes .- The Democrats easily elected Charles O. Page to the House of Representatives from the Western District of Rhode Island, there having been no majority there ing observed as the Sabbath. The General Germantown Junction and paid homage to the election, and the Republican candidate, W. O. Arnold, refused to run. - The Illinois deadlock still continues. Voting by the Democrats has been in favor of Palmer. The Alliance men have of course favored Streeter, while the Republican steering committee have been endeavoring to whip in the recalcitrant ones of their own party to vote for Streeter, the latter lean-Alliance man. At the time of going to press, there is talk of presenting Judge Payson as candidate by the Republicans. He stands well with the farmers on the find question, but rather too stalwart for them in other things. CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Floods in the Salt and Gila River Valleys, Arizona, have caused $125,000 damage, chiefly in and near Phonix. Five Pima Indians were drowned, Gov. Irwin hastaken steps to relieve the destitute .- On the north-bound track of the middle tunnel in Park avenue, New York. Feb. 20, a New Haven engine ran into the rear car of the Boston and Albany express, telescoping it. The wreck caught fire from an overturned Baker heater, and six persons were burned to death .- The boiler of the steamer Oneida exploded on the night of Feb. 18 on the Kanawha River, near Newark, W. Va., completely wrecking the vessel. Only the Captain and Engineer were injured .- Prof. Alexander Winchell, the distinguished Professor of Geology and Palæontology in the University of Michigan, died of Bright's disease at his home in Ann Harbor. He was born at North East, N. Y., Dec. 31, 1824. - The five Indians who were charged with the murder of Lieut. Casey, during the late Indian troubles, have been taken to Fort Meade, S. D., for trial, --- Floods have damaged much property throughout the Middle, Eastern and Southern States, particularly at Cincinnati, Parkersburg, Moundsville, Wheeling, Rochester, Louisville, Johnstown, In some places factories were closed down, railroad tracks rendered impassable and many people made temporarily homeless, --- Fire swept the town of Wadesboro, N. C., -1,500 inhabitauts. Five large storehouses and four dwellings were burned. The loss exceeded $16,000. -Ten persons were badly injured in a collision between a vestibule-train and a freighttrain, near Milan, Tenn., Felk 18, the passenger being ditched and entirely burned .-The Secretary of the World's Fair Committee on Ceremonies has mailed a letter to the Adiutant-General of each State apprising them that the formal dedication of the Exposition Building will take place in October, 1892, and that among the attractions will be a military parade, composed of the flower of the Army and of the National Guard, to be followed with drills, Every State is expected to take early action with a view to being represented in the ceremonies. -- A newspaper feud in Columbus, O., culminated in the death of two men on Monday. Col. J. W. Elijo t, editor of the Sunday Capital, and his brother Patrick met Albert Osborne city editor of the Sunday World, on the street, and a running pistol fight cusued, which ended in the killing of Osborne and a bystander, W. L. Hughes, by Col. Elliott, and the wounding of Patrick and two bystanders. A Common Some Calendar.

The calendars that come in the Fall are as numerous as the flowers that bloom in the Spring. Many further resemble the flowers in that they come without being sent for, and fade after a very brief existence. The most sensible and business-like calendar that we have seen comes to us from N. W. Aver & Son, Newspaper Advertising Agents, Philingly at it" imprint. It is so large and clear that its dates can be easily distinguished across uttered by the General's son, the beautiful flag an office, and is printed in a manner to recon-It is sent to any address, po tpaid, on receipt of 25 cents. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism an emplosion of cannon at some little distance | by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Give it a trial,

Spring Humors, whether itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, pimply, or blotchy, whether of the skin, scalp, or blood, whether simple, scrofulous, or hereditary, are now speedily, permanently, and economically cured by the Cuticura Remedies when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. The almost miraculous cures daily effected by them prove this. No statement is made regarding them not warranted by the strongest evidence.

They are, in truth, the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times. They are absolutely pure, and agreeable to the most sensitive, and may be used on the youngest infant and most delicate invalid with gratifying and unfailing success. Curi-CURA, the great skin cure, instantly allays the most intense itching, burning, and inflammation, permits rest and sleep, soothes and heals raw and irritated surfaces, clears the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and restores the hair. CUTICURA SOAP, the only medicated toilet soap, is indispensable in cleansing diseased surfaces. CUTICURA RE-SOLVENT, the new blood and skin purifier, and greatest of humor remedies, cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus removes the cause. Hence, the Cuticura Remedies cure every humor of the Spring, from the simplest facial blemishes to the worst case of scrofula. Sale greater than the combined sales of all other blood and skin remedies.

"How to CURE DISEASES OF THE SKIN AND BLOOD" mailed free to any address, 64 pages, 300 Diseases, so Illustrations, 100 testimonials. A book of priceless value to every sufferer. CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c. CUTICURA SOAP, #50-1 CUTICURA RE-SOLVENT, $1. Prepared by POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, BOSTON.

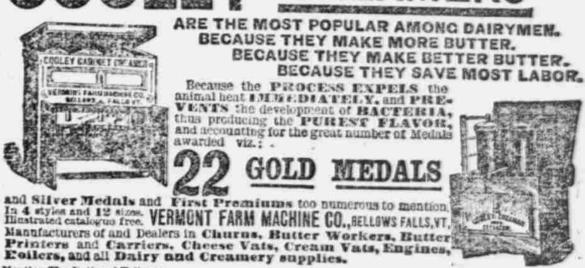

Pimply, Blotchy Skin, red, rough, and oily skin and hands, painful finger-ends with shapeless nails, are prevented and cured by Cutlcura Soap, incomparably the greatest of skin purifiers and beautifiers, while rivalling in delicacy and surpassing in purity the most expensive of toilet and nursery scaps. The only medicated toilet soup, and the only preventive and cure of inflammation and clogging of the pores, the cause of pimples, blackheads, rough, red, and oily skin, and simple humors of infants and children. Sale greater than the combined sale of all other skin soups. Sold everywhere.

(new and old, strictly true to name) at almost half price. Lovett's Guide to Horticulture gives their prices, merits and defects, and tells how to purchase, plant, prune, cultivate, etc. It is a book of over 80 pages, finely printed and profusely illustrated. Mailed free; with colored plates 10c. Trees and Plants to distant points by mail and express a specialty. A copy of Orchard and Garden sent free to all who state where they saw this advi. J. T. LOVETT CO., Little Silver, N. J. Mention The National Tribune.

COOLEY CREAMERS

Mention The National Tripune

Mention The National Tribusa

Mention The National Tribuna. Seeds, Plants, Shrubs, Vines, Fruit & Ornamental Trees, Etc. CATALOGUE FREE. Over 150 pages illustrating and describing one of the largest and best assorted stocks of Seeds, Trees and Plants in the U.S. Best value for the money in our Tested Novelties and Special Low Priced Collections. 37 YEARS, 25 CREENHOUSES, 700 ACRES, THE STORRS & HARRISON CO., Painesville, Ohio,

Illustrated, complete, the best book of its kind, FREE sent FREE to any address. Send for it now. We offer: 12 New French Cannas strong plants for $1.00 7 New Plants and 7 Pkts. New and Rake Flower Seeds $1.00 8 Excensive Pearl Tunenoses Me.

6 Splendid WINTER BLOOMING ROSES. 50c. ALL the above sent postpaid for $3.00. ROBERT SCOTT & SON, Philadelphia, Pa. Onden Now and mention this paper. Mention The National Tribune.

THE DINGEE & CONARD CO'S GROW and BLOOM. We have the know-how of growing them, keeping them, shipping them. Acres of Glass. If you really like Roses you are bound to con to all interested. We send ROSES, HARDY PLANTS, SUMMER BULBS, FLOWER and VEGETABLE SEEDS postpaid, to all post offices. Safe arrival and satisfaction guaranteed.

THE DINGEE & CONARD CO .- Rose Growers and Seedsmen-West Grove, Pa.

THE universal favor socorded THLINGHAST'S PUGET Sound Cabbage Szans leads me to offer a P. S. GROWN Onion, the facet Yellow Globs in existence. To introduce it and show its capabilities I will pay $100 for the best yield obtained from I cunce of seed which I will mail for 80 cts. Cata-logue free. Isnao F. Tillinghast, ryoung people. Uses he Naven, Conn. La Plume, Pa Mention The National Tribune. Mention The National Tribuca.

WELL DRILLING MACHINERY. MANUFACTURED BY WILLIAMS BROTHERS, ITHACA, N. Y., Incressors to the Empire Well Anger Co. Mounted and on Sills, for deep or shallow wells, with steam or horse Send for Catalogue. illiams Brothers ITHACA, N. Y Mention The National Tribuna.

Mention The National Tribune.

TREES All best Old and New varies SHRUBS MENTAL TREES, ROSES, SMALL FRUITS and PLANTS of all descriptions. Write us for prices before ordering elsewhere. Descriptive Catalogue focents. PRICE-LISTS SENT FREE. 10 VARIETIES OF GRAPES FOR $1.00. ELIZABETH NURSERY CO.,

Mention The National Tribune. New Jersey.

hatener. Send Sc. for Illus Catalogue. Circulars free. CEO.H.STAHL, QUINCY, ILL. The addresses of all soldlers SOLDIERS' made find proof on the same before June 22, 1874. HOMESTEADS. MOSSS & PREGUNON, Denver, Colorado,

EAGLE PRINTING OUTFIT 15: pe holder, bottle indelible ink, ink pad d tweezers; put up in neat box, with full structions for use. Club of eight, 41.02. Engle Supply Co. New Haven, Coan,

Mention The National Tribuos. PISTOLS 750 WATCHESS, CLOCKS, INC. Cincinnati, Ohio. POWELL & CLEMENT. Mention The National Tribuns

THE "GEM" SELF STAMP 250 Hadroed from 60 cents. Sent protect.
In fall infeligible, with your manne in handrems. her type and a rial of any color lak. Business and Eagle Stamp Works, New Haven, Conn. Mention The National Tribuna.

DISH The most Conderful household article even invented, washes, rinses and dries dishes in four minuses time. A complete success. Transport of the complete success. wantsit. Splendid terms. Agentscoin WASHER money Absolutely no competition. WASHER The Geo. H. Rowell Co., 181 Cleretand, O. Mention The National Tribuna.

Youths' outfit (78 letters) makes any name, 150. 15 CILK SOUND TO SEE WILL THE THE THE TOTAL OF THE CHE APPRING Rubber Stamp Co. P 70, New Haven, Come Mention The National Tribune.

ACME WINDOW POLISH. Old Veterans or their Widows who would be pleased to earn from $3.00 $15.00 a week, send 4 ents in stamps, and address for sample and terms, H. L. GARDNER, Springfield, Mass.

Mention The National Tribune. ACENTS! MAKE MONEY. Take puying business to be found. Send for term S. C. TALLMAN & CO., Auburn, N. Y.

Mention The National Tribune. Have you done your duty in getting one more You should do this, for it is the best way to help

subscriber for THE NATIONAL TRIBUNL *